

GALLERIES WHERE YOU WILL FIND MY PHOTOGRAPHY

In addition to the digital galleries on this website, my photography is available for viewing and purchase at the following physical galleries in northern California:

BROWN DOG GALLERY: 305 Pine Street, McCloud, CA 96057. The Brown Dog Gallery is filled with wonderful art and gift items. The town of McCloud is in a beautiful setting with a fine view of Mount Shasta and many interesting shops. The area is known for year around recreation including, skiing, hiking, fishing and camping. The town is a destination in itself but, be sure to visit the Brown Dog Gallery.

SCOTT VALLEY DRUG: 511 Main Street, Etna, CA 96027. Scott Valley Drug is the hub of the rustic town of Etna in the Scott Valley region of Siskiyou County. It's far more than a drugstore as it sports an old fashion fountain and offers books, arts and craft items for sale. Etna is the location of the Scott Valley Bluegrass Festival each July. The festival brings in some top level bands and draw visitors from far and wide. Etna is a fun place to visit in the midst of cattle country but don't fail to visit Scott Valley Drug...it's the social center of town.

MacGREGOR'S GIFTS, GROGG & BOOK EMPORIUM: 216 W. Miner Street, Yreka, CA. 96097. Located in a vintage building in the historic town of Yreka, MacGregor's is the place to visit if you love books, arts and crafts. It's just the place to find books that are hard to find and the perfect gift for a special person. Don't miss MacGregor's in Yreka and be sure to ask the owner how the business got its name.

GREEN SHUTTER GALLERY: 22654 Main Street, Hayward, CA 94541. The Green Shutter Gallery is run by and for the Hayward Arts Council. It has periodic shows where local artists display and sell their work. It's a great place to purchase a gift of art or just to enjoy the work of local artists.

MY ZAZZLE STORE located at www.zazzle.com/cnelson01* is filled with fun and useful gift items made from my photographs and designs. It's literally a one stop shopping place where you can order cards, mugs, shoes, shirts, jewelry, ornaments, buttons, hats, mouse pads, magnets, stickers, steins, tote bags, and much, much more. These are all unique, one of a kind gift items and Zazzle has frequent sales and a generous return policy if you aren't satisfied.
